1616. DR. RATNAKAR PANDEY: Will the Minister of HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are aware of acute shortage and often non-availability of even common medicines in the wards as also in the emergency of Dr. Ram Manohar Lohia Hospital, New Delhi;

(b) whether it is a fact that senior doctors do not care to visit even serious patients; and

(c) if so, whether any enquiry has been ordered into the matter and what is the outcome thereof and if not, whether Government propose to assess the gravity of the situation so as to save precious lives of the patients?

THE MINISTER OF HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE (SHRI NILAMANI ROUTRAY): (a) There is no general shortage of medicines in the wards of Dr. Ram Manohar Lohia Hospital, New Delhi except medicines, which are not readily available in the market.

(b) No, Sir.

(c) Does not arise.

Action on the complaint against M/s. Kiran Gas Service, Khan Market, New Delhi

1617. SHRI TALARI MANOHAR: Will the Minister of PETROLEUM AND CHEMICALS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that L.P.G. refills are generally supplied very late by M/s. Kiran Gas Service, Khan Market, New Delhi and the consumers have to wait for their refills for days and weeks together;

(b) if so, what are the reasons therefor;

(c) what is the number of complaints received against the above distributor on this account since January, 1988 till date;

(d) whether any action has been taken on each of such complaints;

(e) whether it is a fact that I.O.C. instead of taking any action against the distributor, advises the consumers to change the distributorship; and

(f) if so, what effective action Government propose to take to check such malpractices?

THE MINISTER OF PETROLEUM AND CHEMICALS (SHRI M.S. GURUPADASWAMY): (a) Complaints that the refills are generally supplied very late by this dealer have not been received.

(b) Does not arise.

(c) During the period from 1st January, 1988 to 28th February, 1990, one complaint regarding delay in refill supplies was received against this distributor.

(d) This complaint was investigated and consumer's grievance redressed.

(e) No, Sir. However, the consumer has the freedom to change the distributor if not satisfied with the services.

(f) If refills are not supplied according to the bookings made, action is taken under the marketing discipline guidelines.
